

Loving the Alien - David Bowie

Sim La Sol La
Watching them come and go The templars and the saracens
They're traveling the holy land Opening telegrams oh ho
Torture comes and torture goes Knights who'd give you anything
They bear the cross of coeur de lion
Salvation for the mirror blind oh ho
But if you pray all your sins are hooked upon the sky
Lam Mim Re# Re
Pray and the heathen lie will disappear
Sol La
Prayers they hide the saddest view
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sol La
And your prayers they break the sky in two
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sim La Sim La
Thinking of a different time Palestine a modern problem
Bounty and your wealth in land Terror in a best laid plan oh ho
Watching them come and go Tomorrows and the yesterdays
Christians and the unbelievers Hanging by the cross and nail oh ho
But if you pray all your sins are hooked upon the sky
Lam Mim Re# Re
Pray and the heathen lie will disappear
Sol La
Prayers they hide the saddest view
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sol La
And your prayers they break the sky in two
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sol La
You pray till the break of all.
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sol La
And you'll believe you're loving the alien
(Believing the strangest things, loving the alien)
Sol La
Believing the strangest things (loving the alien)
