Liar Liar - Cris Cab

```
Lam Rem

Lam                Rem
To the night time she's burning
Lam                Rem
Happen the which way she was turning
    Sib    Do        Rem        Sib    Do        Rem
And I still know the pain She brought me live one day
Lam                Rem
She was always somewhere behind me
Lam                Rem
Thought there was something she was hiding
    Sib    Do        Rem
But now I found the truth
    Sib    Do        Rem
The thing she'll never you
   Lam  Rem   Lam      Rem
Liar   liar     She's on fire
         Sib          Do       Rem
She's waiting there around the corner
         Sib          Do       Rem
Just a little air and she'll jump on ya
            Lam                 Rem
It's a quarter to midnight and she's leaving
            Lam             Rem
Just when she thought I was sleeping
    Sib    Do        Rem       Sib    Do        Rem
And I could not believe The things that I had seen
        Lam                Rem
When was the right time I caught her
      Lam             Rem
And she was dead in the water
    Sib    Do        Rem         Sib    Do        Rem
I found her in her tracks She heard me answer back

   Lam  Rem   Lam      Rem
Liar   liar     She's on fire
         Sib          Do       Rem
She's waiting there around the corner
         Sib          Do       Rem
Just a little air and she'll jump on ya
  Sib         Rem
Liar liar oh oh oh  I need the sun to keep me dry
Liar liar oh oh oh  the way you got me swimming through your life
Liar liar oh oh oh  keep hearing voices in my mind saying
           Solm                        Do     Lam
The problem with her lifestyle she's in denial

   Lam  Rem   Lam      Rem
Liar   liar     She's on fire
         Sib          Do       Rem
She's waiting there around the corner
         Sib          Do       Rem
Just a little air and she'll jump on ya
   Lam  Rem   Lam      Rem
Liar   liar     She's on fire
         Sib          Do       Rem
She's waiting there around the corner
         Sib          Do       Rem
Just a little air and she'll jump on ya

Rem a sfumare
