All the kings - Editors

```
Sol    Lam    2x

           Sol
Send me to Venus, send me to Mars
              Lam
The crippling fear of colliding stars
           Sol
Break from tradition, the first little taste
          Lam
A gentle reminder, the tear on your face

                     Sol
But the beat of your heart
                Lam
Is alone in the dark

                   Sol
The place where we met is haunted by thieves
                Lam
Sifting through memories, from the foreign leaves
                 Sol
Oh, bank us your soul, now race with the clock
         Lam
Immunity over, take a moment, then stop

                     Sol
But the beat of your heart
                Lam
Is alone in the dark
                 Sol
The beat of your heart
                Lam
The beat of your heart

Fa
Loneliness forever, loneliness forever
Sol
Holding back a river, holding back a river
Do
All the kings are coming
                                  Fa
Marching to the sound from your ribcage

              Sol
So send me to Venus, send me to Mars
              Lam
Seen all your failures, all your scars
                 Sol
Seen it all burn down, we dance to the sparks
                Lam
We dance to the beating of your broken heart

Fa
Sol
Do
                                  Fa

Sol Fa               Fa    Sol
   Oh, let it all burn down
Lam Do                 Sol  Fa
    We built a house on the sun
