

Fear for nobody - Maneskin

Sim

Sim

I don't envy, I will survive
And I've been begging, begging myself
Please don't close your eyes
I don't have tears, I cried it all
I heard a voice that's inside me
She says please stay what you want

Mim

And I've been begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Sim

Am I begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Mim

Am I begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Sim

Am I begging you, begging you but

Sim

I have no fear for no...

I have no fear for nobody, nobody now

Sim

I'm staying here and I'm not lying
And I've been beating on, beating on my chest I'm ready to fight
This is not a dream, this is the truth
This is my story and I cannot [?] give a fuck about you

Mim

And I've been begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Sim

Am I begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Mim

Am I begging you, begging you
Please show me, please show me why

Sim

Am I begging you, begging you but
