

Streets of Surrender (S.O.S.) - Zucchero ft Mark Knopfler

Mi Si La Si Mi
Do#m Si La Do#m Si La

Mi Si La
Every man has got two cities he needs to be
Mi
The one he can touch
La
And the one he can't see
Do#m Si La Si
The one where a stranger's a friend
Mi Si La Do#
Every man has got one city of liberty
Si La
For me it's Paris, I love it
Do#m Si La
Every time I try to lose myself I seem to find
Si Mi
The streets of surrender
La
You're free, baby, baby
Mi
Free now and forever
Si
It's Christmas time You can decide
La Mi
to forget or to remember
La
You're free, baby, baby
Mi
I Didn't come down here to fight you
Si
I came here down these streets
La Mi
of love and pride to surrender
La Mi La Mi
The streets of surrender of surrender
Mi Si La
I heard the oldest story
La Si Mi
That nobody seems to know
La
I think it was about that stranger
Do#m Si La Mi Si
It was youth, it was love and it was danger
Mi Si
It was winter but La Si Do#m
that warm it gets before the snow
Si
It froze my soul
La Do#m
I'm crying crying about some kid
Si La
That they found lying on a beach
Si Mi
Born in a manger
La
You're free, baby, baby
Mi
Free now and forever

Si
It's Christmas time
 La Mi
You can decide to forget or to remember
 La
You're free, baby, baby
 Mi
Didn't come down here to fight you
 Si
I came here down these streets
 La Mi
 La Do# La Mi Si
The streets of surrender"

Do#m La
I live in the stories that are told
 Mi
In the child you chose to hold
 Si
And the ones you turn away
 La
To be free baby, baby
 Mi
Free now and forever
 Si
This vale of tears will disappear
 La Mi
And it's love you will remember
 La
You're free baby, baby
 Mi
I didn't come down here to fight you
 Si
I came here down these streets
 La Mi
 La Mi
 La Mi La Si Mi
The streets of surrender
